

Bali property during Covid-19

Description

Indonesia will become one of the largest economies globally by 2030, although post-COVID 19, this could be revised, it's a strong indication that individuals would seek to live in a place with Warm weather, friendly cultures, unmatched scenery and where living is generally speaking a lot more affordable. Bali is a vibrant country with a government that is pro-economic growth, a speedy economic recovery is predicted. Bank Indonesia said the country's economic growth could still soar to 5.4 percent despite the ongoing impact of COVID-19, which many fear will dampen economic and travel activity around the world.

Facts about Indonesia :

- Population 260 million
- Land Mass 1,811,000 km2
- Indonesia has the 4th largest population base globally with 50% of the population under 30 years old
- Well estimated that Indonesia will become the largest economy globally by 2030, we think it will still make the top 5.

The island of Bali forms the centre of Indonesia's tourism economy and is one of the most lucrative places to invest in property abroad. Currently, there are some fantastic opportunities to develop land and property on the island.
