

22517 – 115.900 sqm (11.59 ha) land in Pucuk Munduk uphill, Singaraja

Description

This spacious vacant land perfectly nestled in an enchanting iconic tourist destination area the highland of Munduk – Bedugul, offers 360° views of misty, cool mountains (Shangyang and Batu Karu), Bedugul Botanical Garden, Tamblingan lake, Ocean, local farming with picturesque landscapes and jungle vistas. This still-to-be-discovered corner of Bali rests in the center of the northern highlands of the magical island of Gods. The area is surrounded with wonderful waterfalls, Twin lakes with rainforest-covered hill, ancient Hindu floating temple, and volcanic mountains, where you can connecting to the nature and experience the authentic local culture. Incomparable views serenaded by birdsong and a choir of crickets. It is on this infinite horizon where both backdrops sunrise sparkling on the blue skies and sunsets melt into misty hues to become star spangled skies which this land offers to you to build and create a tranquil luxurious tourist accommodation destination. And the great things is the price offering is much cheaper compare to other region in Bali.

The Land Details:

- Total size: 115,900m²/1,159 are/ 11.59Ha
- 360° views of mountains, Botanical Garden, Lake, Ocean, Sunrise and Sunrise
- Ownership: Freehold/SHM
- Contour: Gently slope
- Neighbors: Local farming and residential, tourist attractions, etc
- Environment: serene, cool and picturesque
- Location: Pucuk Munduk, Singaraja

PRICE IDR 17,000,000/are or IDR 1,700,000,000/Ha

Date Created

2023/07/24

Author

mila