

39448 – 359 sqm riverside land for sale in Kediri, Tabanan

Description

Strategically located in an emerging investment area of Tabanan Regency, in a sought-after location from which to visit and explore some of Bali's most popular regions. This prime plot is ideal for developing or business investment or even for building a home away from home while holidaying in Bali. Within approximately 4 km from Kedungu beach, this land area offers one of the most captivating nature view of the lush greenery, rice field and pristine river, not to mention the majestic mountain and stunning sunset from distance. Flanked between the local residences and river and features a 359 sqm with flat contour land. This land is easy to access too as the area provides 4 meters width access road and proximity to some popular tourist attractions like black sand beaches in Tabanan Regency area and also the sacred Tanah Lot Temple is only 10 km away. This area is a perfect urban escape but still can enjoy the hips and the exotic of Bali itself. Ideally situated in residential zoning which safe for building. A very nice place for both living or leisure and would be a very good choice for investment indeed.
